

Kid's Bedroom Organization Checklist

Keep in the bedroom

- Clothes that:
 - Still fit
 - Are appropriate for the current season
 - Are in good condition
- Toys and books that your child plays with or reads often
- Anything else that your child really loves and wants to hold on to

Keep but store elsewhere

- Clothing that is:
 - Too small but can fit a sibling
 - Out-of-season but will still fit when appropriate to wear
- Toys that will be passed on to a sibling
- Anything kept for sentimental value

Donate

- Clothing that:
 - No longer fits and there is no younger sibling to pass them on to
 - Is in good condition
 - Your child just won't wear
- Toys that:
 - Are not played with
 - You think are inappropriate for your child
- Anything else that's in good condition but your child no longer uses or needs

Trash

- Clothing that is torn, frayed and stained
- Toys that are broken or missing pieces
- Anything else that's not in good condition and can't be repaired
